

Call for participants Training Days for Social Business in Switzerland

The Anny-Klawa-Morf Foundation, together with its partner, FEPS is delighted to present a call for participants for the Training Days for Social Business.

Background: The idea of the Training Days is to strengthen the understanding of the importance of social business and sharing the knowledge about challenges and opportunities from companies and employees working in a decentralized self-management. The project aims to provide new ideas and findings to the social and political discourse in this field.

When: Saturday, 3rd of September 2022, from 09.00 to 16.00 hrs.

Where: Fachhochschule Nordwestschweiz, Olten, Switzerland. From Basel airport it takes 55 minutes to Olten, from Zurich airport 50 minutes.

Arrival will take place the evening before, on 2nd of September. There is the possibility of a joint dinner on 2nd of September. Travel and accommodation costs will be covered.

What can you expect?

- New insights into research on alternative management models and the impact of self management on employees
- Hearing from entrepreneurs in Switzerland and Germany in this field
- Exchange on the challenges in the field of self-management and social business

Process: Please send your application (CV and short letter of motivation) by Wednesday, 10th August 2022 to the AKM, addressing Mr. Beda Baumgartner, AKM Project manager (beda.baumgartner@anny-klawa-morf.ch), who may also be addressed in case of further queries regarding this Call.

Following the Call, successful candidates will be informed during the week of 15th August. AKM is aiming at accepting 20 participants, observing principles of equality and fair representation. We have defined three different target groups for the project: Firstly, politicians and policy makers close to FEPS family. We want to fill the discussion about a fairer and alternative way of doing business with concrete content and life and to this end establish participatory management as a model. Secondly, we want to reach
